Tangalooma wins Best Family Accommodation Award

Tangalooma Island Resort has been awarded Getaway Best Family Accommodation at the Australian Gourmet Traveller and Espresso 2008 Travel Awards.

The second annual event held in Sydney on Monday 2nd June 2008, celebrated the nation's best travel experiences – from fine luxury hotel to eco adventure tourism.

Tangalooma Island Resort's Director of Sales and Marketing, Mr David James was thrilled to have won this award.

"To win this national award in a very competitive category is a tribute to the sustainable development and the planning strategies Tangalooma Island Resort has implemented.

"This in turn has provided us with the capabilities to successfully target both the domestic and international markets and meet the expectations of our guests.

"Tangalooma Island Resort is fortunate to be located in the Moreton Bay & Islands region, which is undoubtedly one of Queensland's greatest natural assets.

"The future development of tourism in the Moreton Bay & Islands Region has the potential to become one of the most important tourist destinations in Queensland,' Mr James said.
