What our clients have to say:

"Thank you to the Tangalooma team for going above & beyond to make sure we were well accommodated. A 320-person event is never an easy one to organise, but Tangalooma worked tirelessly and outside of their normal scope to allow us to hold the convention we desired."

"Thanks to the talented efforts of the Tangalooma Conferencing & Events Team, CQIB's 30th convention was executed perfectly, and was so well-received by all attendees. We are already looking forward to our next Tangalooma event!"

"The resort ticked a lot of boxes for us to host our guests the way we wanted to, and the Tangalooma Event Staff could not have done more for us," said Ellie Johnson, Hospitality & Events Manager for Ladbrokes. "There was no request too big or small. They're just as passionate as we are about giving our clients the best experience possible."

"The triumph has definitely been the number of clients who have contacted us since the event and asked to be invited again," she continued. "It's been such a positive response and our clients clearly enjoyed themselves."

Brisbane Airport Corporation chose Tangalooma Island Resort as the destination for our Passion Days program. Passion Days are an opportunity for the Corporation to thank our staff for a year of hard work. They also provide the chance for the team to engage with colleagues they don't often see in their day-to-day duties. The resort's stunning location and range of activities and facilities provided the platform for one of our best Passion Days yet. The relaxed environment and professionalism of resort staff made the co-ordination of the event easy."
